Our Regular Correspondent Tells

A DAY'S NEWS OF SUMMER'S LIVE CAPITAL CITY.

To the Editor of the Daily Eagle: The new school house which is, by the way, the pride of Wellington, is to be dedicated on Monday. The furnaces are being put in today.

Mr. Geo. M. Allen, connected with the Express, of Terre Haute, Indiana, is in the city on a visit to his old home and school mate, Wm. Anderson.

From his letters it would seem that hunger and the price of grain was the cause of the riot in the city of Chicago.

Asphalt pavements are becoming the rage in this city. F. E. Neal, P. A. Parsons and Rev. J. N. McLaughlin have already put this class of work in front of their residences.

Wellington is destined to be the best paved and drained city in the state. The work being done is the very best, and there are now at least 100 men at work in different portions of the city.

Mrs. L. G. Reed yesterday for a visit to her old home in Boston, Mass.

It is surprising the number of friends the EAGLE is gaining in this city, and as the agent here will after this devote considerable time to furnish all the live local matter, we will not be surprised to see 250 subscribers to the daily at Wellington.

Hon. Benj. S. Miller, prominent as a candidate for the state senate, has been in the city several times recently. It will soon be decided at the Harper convention, whether it will be Farney or Miller.

Col. John T. Showalter, president of the Shawnee mortgage company, is at home after a two months' absence from Kansas and other eastern cities. In reply to our inquiry in regard to finances east, Col. Showalter said that he knew nothing more than any one else who was in the city.

As that was particularly interesting to readers of the EAGLE, I will quote the gentleman's language: "Whenever I found a capitalist that had been in Kansas, I would call on him, and especially from this part of the state, it was no trouble to enlist his capital in Kansas mortgages, and there were some who even refused to take any other western loan except through the Shawnee mortgage company." He continued, "you would be surprised at the ignorance of men in regard to the condition of this state, some of them honestly think that the state is still a hogan wilderness."

Wellington's city directory will appear next week. The work is said by those who should be judges to be quite a complete affair.

A thief recently broke into the grocery store of M. C. Long, on Washington ave., but only got a little change that was left in the money drawer and a few cigars. The fellow was certainly a novice in his business, or he would have been able to have bettered his opportunities.

Price, of the E. church officiating. There was quite a gathering of relatives and friends of both bride and groom, and the wedding reception was numerous, elegant and costly.

Mr. Hall is a member of the firm of Hall Brothers, agricultural implement dealers, and one of the leading young business men of the city. The bride, Miss Florence Stettler, was one of the most prominent, popular and well-known society young ladies, and one of those happy hearted people that always had a good word for every one, and were received accompanied by letters of regret from several Wichita friends.
